

CAROLINA WOULD ATTRACT SETTLERS

Department of Agriculture Gets Out Booklet Setting Forth Opportunities.

CHOKED WOMAN TO DEATH

Negro Man Murders Old Creature for Her Pitiful Savings of $25.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., April 23.—Secretary T. K. Bruner, of the State Department of Agriculture, who is in charge of the effort for being made by the State to attract desirable immigration, is just completing a very attractive little booklet that will be printed in half a dozen or more languages, and given, the widest possible circulation in England, Germany, France, desirable sections of Italy, Switzerland, Norway, Sweden and other foreign countries, as well as through the Northwest and Canada. The title-page, under very attractive design, bears the following striking inscription: "North Carolina, Land of Corn and Wine, Fruits and Flowers, Sunshine and Opportunity. Acquire Homes and Independence. Write the Department of Agriculture, Raleigh, N. C." An effort is being made to have the Charlotte Battery go to the Jamestown Exposition in August, along with the other companies of the North Carolina National Guard. Captain Mark W. Williams, of the battery, was here Monday, but the matter could not be settled then, owing to the absence of Governor Glenn.

Choke Woman to Death.

Purney Smith, colored, has been committed to the penitentiary from Wayne county to serve thirty years for the murder of Sarah Cooper, an aged negro woman, who was drawing a Federal pension and was known to have some money. Smith and his wife, who obtained $25. They choked the old woman to death. Smith has made a confession, in which he charges three other persons with being accomplices with him. These have been "kipped out." A negro woman, Ann Jones, was also brought at the same time from Goldsboro to serve eighteen months for larceny.

An order is made by the Corporation Commission for the Seaboard Air Line to rebuild at once the freight and passenger station at Neuse, just north of Raleigh, which was destroyed by fire about three months ago.

DIES AT HIS POST.

In Head-On Collision—Others Jumped and Saved Themselves.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SPENCER, N. C., April 23.—T. L. Royall, aged twenty-two years, a fireman on the Southern Railway, was killed in a head-on collision at Spencer today, his body being frightfully mangled by the engine under which he was caught. The wreck occurred in the Spencer yards, a southbound wrecking train dashing into an outgoing freight. The crew of the wrecking train and all but Royall escaped, the latter remaining at his post. He died at a hospital an hour after the accident. Fast running within the yard limits is said to have been the cause of the collision.

NEW PRIMARY LAW WORKS VERY WELL

Another Vote Will Be Necessary to Decide Mayoralty Fight in Greensboro.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 23.—Greensboro's new primary law was given a test in the Democratic primaries to nominate candidates for city officers to-day, and proved highly satisfactory in every way, except that there were not enough polling places. The polls opened at 6 o'clock and remained open until 8 o'clock this evening. At 11 o'clock to-night about two-thirds of the ballots had been counted, the count indicating that Alderman Leon J. Brandt has a plurality of the votes cast, with Mayor Murphy giving him a close race. There were 1,671 ballots cast. It will take another primary to decide between Mayor Murphy and Alderman Brandt. The name of the other candidate, E. J. Stafford, will be dropped, and the second primary will be held Tuesday of next week. Mr. Brandt's friends are confident that he will receive the nomination.

There was no opposition to E. A. Brown, E. B. Bain, Neal Ellington and C. C. McLean for Aldermen. And they are nominated. It is thought that John L. King and R. A. Glascock will be the other nominees.

BRIDE SAYS GROOM RAN OFF WITH MONEY

Reports to Police Loss of $800 Two Days After Her Marriage.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 23.—Salem S. Chambliss, a young Syrian, applied Monday to Register of Deeds Kirkman for a marriage license; he and Katy Gabriel, a young Syrian merchant of this city, being the persons interested. The register of deeds did not issue the license until an hour later, when the young fellow had consulted the prospective bride and the Syrian colony and procured in writing the necessary papers to comply with the law in such cases provided, and the marriage was duly celebrated Monday night. Wednesday the fair but disconsolate bride reported to the police that her husband had disappeared and she feared evil had befallen him, and invoked the aid of the minions of the law to discover his whereabouts, there being suggestions that some envious and pretty Greek had kidnapped the youthful groom. But, alas! on Saturday afternoon the bride again appeared, this time not so much disconsolate as she was on Wednesday. She informed the police that her kidnapping husband was unfounded, and instead her husband had run off with $800 of her money, besides owing her a debt of $15 for money borrowed during the courtship. She said that she had been keeping the money in her shopping bag, and that when Chambliss extracted it therefrom he took care to replace it with something of equal weight, so she could not discover the theft until she looked in the bag, which she did not do until that morning. The fact that she is a deserted wife is apparently of little concern to Mrs. Chambliss, since, as she confided to the police, she didn't love him anyhow; but the loss of her hard-earned dollars is causing her much worry.

NEW HIGH SCHOOLS.

Guilford County Will Be Abreast of Every Carolina County.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 23.—At its next regular session, the first Saturday in May, the Board of Education of Guilford county, will select three locations in the county, where public high schools will be established under the provisions of the recent act of the Greensboro Assembly. This will make Guilford first in the matter of free public rural high schools, as she was first in the matter of free public city graded schools. The new law limits the number of high schools to be established in a county to four. Guilford will have three and perhaps four, the limit, by the beginning of the fall sessions of the public schools.

Revival in Greensboro.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 23.—A revival has begun at the First Baptist Church in this city, which promises to be fruitful of results. The pastor, Rev. Dr. H. W. Battle, will be assisted by two Baptist evangelists, W. W. Hamilton and W. D. Wakefield. Dr. Hamilton preached powerful sermons to large congregations yesterday and last night, and the singing of Dr. Wakefield was always inspiring. Dr. Hamilton was selected at the last Southern Convention of the Baptist denomination as its general evangelist, and was induced to take the field, resigning his pastorate of the largest congregation in Louisville, Ky., to enter into the work. He declares that the Word of God is his sole weapon, and yesterday he wielded it with the hand of a master prompted by love.

BIG PURSES FOR EMPORIA FAIR

Management of Annual Event Now Busy Perfecting Attractive Schedule.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
EMPORIA, VA., April 23.—Extensive preparations are now under way for the second annual meeting of the Emporia Agricultural Fair, which begins October 22d, and which will continue for three days.

General Manager Alfred Bogle, who some time ago received quite a severe injury while exhibiting one of his colts on the local track, is out again, and is now getting the affairs of the fair meet in excellent shape, promising some pretty racing during next October.

Large and attractive purses are now being formed by the local management for trotting and pacing stock, which in the aggregate will amount to $5,000. Many of the horses owned by residents of Emporia and vicinity, who have fast horses, have already begun training entries for the fall racing. Among the high-stoppers noticed on the circle are "Hudgrott," a two-toned and a quarter pacer; "Cadet, Jr.," a twenty-two trotter, and "Dan Patch, Jr.," a two-year-old, and the winner of the stakes among the class of the 1906 Potomac Md. races. This colt gives every evidence of making a fast goer, and is owned by A. A. Blagie, of Emporia. His performance on the track here are marveled at by all the lovers of fine horseflesh who have seen him in harness. The track at Emporia is now in splendid training condition, but by the time the gates of the fair are thrown open it will be one of the fastest courses south of Baltimore. The stables are models of neatness and comfort.

An interesting feature of the Emporia Fair will be an up-to-date duplication of the "Midway." Only clean and attractive shows will be permitted within the grounds. The farmers from this and adjoining counties purpose making such displays as will deeply interest all who love exhibitions of this character. Attractive and substantial premiums will be offered for the best display of fine poultry and stock, while the ladies department has no less an interesting to the fair sex. Every modern convenience for the patrons of the fair will be observed with the most scrupulous care. The officers of the Emporia Agricultural Fair Association are: Hon. G. L. Vincent, president; Major E. E. Goodwyn, secretary and treasurer; Alfred A. Blagie, general manager; Rufus J. Green, assistant general manager.

SEVEN DIVORCES.

Remarkable Start for Wake Superior Court.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., April 23.—Wake Superior Court is in session this week, Judge E. B. Jones presiding. A remarkable start was made for the term on the very first day, in that seven decrees were granted. The cases were: Minda Jones against Walter Jones, William Hinton against Sarah Hinton, Henry Hill against Mary Hill, Ella Price against W. E. Price, Henry Smith against Ella Smith, Henry Kelly against Elizabeth Kelly, and Louis C. Holland against E. H. Holland.

A jury was impaneled yesterday evening in the case of the week, Judge Jones presiding. The case is that of a North Carolina Home Insurance Company for $500 loss on a farmhouse burned. This case was heard by a jury of three, who returned a verdict in favor of the insurance company charged that the house was burned by Mrs. Norris's husband in order that his wife could get the insurance. However, Mr. Norris, who is a well-known wholesale and retail merchant here, was acquitted after a sensational trial. The jury returned a verdict of a couple of days to try, the defense being that the house was not worth over $150.

MEETING OF EAGLES.

Second Annual State Convention in Session.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STAUNTON, VA., April 23.—The second annual convention of the State Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, is assembled here today, the session being held in the Odd Fellows' Hall. The headquarters of Elliott's Knot, No. 450. Fifty delegates were present at the opening session, which was held this morning at 10 o'clock. Among the visitors are the following State officers: B. J. O'Hara, Past S. W. president; P. T. Murphy, S. W. president; L. E. Blount, S. W. vice-president; W. Holzman, S. W. chaplain; G. Henchore, S. W. secretary; J. F. Parks, S. W. treasurer; E. Anthony, S. W. conductor; Carter Braxton, S. W. inside guard; H. L. Redford, S. W. outside guard. The State trustees are as follows: George Mason, W. T. Dolan and S. S. Lawson. To-night's program of entertainment was in the hands of the following members, who had prepared a treat for the visiting Eagles: W. G. Grummel, chairman; C. E. Stoneburner, J. N. Wilson, E. U. Black and J. G. Dudley.

PREPARE FOR DEBATE.

William and Mary Chooses Men to Meet Richmond College.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., April 23.—The contest between representatives of the two literary societies of William and Mary College, the Philomathean and Phoenix, preliminary to the debate between Richmond College and William and Mary, was held in the William and Mary chapel Tuesday evening. The successful contestants were Mr. G. L. H. Johnson and Mr. G. O. Ferguson, Jr.

On Friday evening, April 26th, these two gentlemen will meet two representatives from Richmond College, to debate the question: "Resolved, That it is Good Policy for the Smaller Colleges of Our Country That They be Grouped Together in a Manner Similar to That Obtaining in the Great English Universities."

The debate will be held in the chapel of William and Mary College, the Richmond College men representing the negative side of the question. Mr. J. H.

Weak Hearts

Upon the heart action depends not only health, but life. Over-work, worry, great mental effort, sickness, or any unusual strain upon the nervous system, affects the heart, by increasing its labors. In this hustling age it is not surprising that one person in four has a weak heart. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens the heart nerves and muscles and restores healthy activity.

"I wrote the Miles Medical Co., asking advice as I was suffering with heart trouble and had been for two years. I had pain in my heart, back and side, and had not been able to draw a deep breath for two years. Any little exertion would cause palpitation, and I could not lie on my left side without suffering. They advised Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and I received a box of it. I took it with the result that I am in better health than I ever was before, having gained 34 pounds since I commenced taking it. I took about thirteen bottles of the two medicines and haven't been troubled with my heart since. I recommend it to every one suffering as I did."

MRS. T. T. THOMAS, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that it will benefit you. If it fails he will refund your money.

Bowen, of the Philomathean Society, will preside.

CAROLINA WINS.

Defeats University of Virginia in Intercollegiate Debate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHICAGO, ILL., N. C., April 23.—The intercollegiate debate between Virginia and Carolina held here to-night in Gerard Hall, resulted in an unanimous decision in favor of Carolina.

The question was: "Resolved, That the Street Railways in the United States Should be Owned and Operated by the State." Carolina upheld the affirmative, and was ably represented by Mr. J. J. Barker and Mr. E. S. W. Dameron. The Virginia team consisted of Mr. H. M. Peck and Mr. J. P. Smith, of the University of Virginia. The debate was presided over by Justice James C. Macrae, Mr. C. C. Herring was the secretary. The judges were Messrs. Edwin Mims, Clarence H. Poe and Josiah W. Bailey.

For Burning a Barn.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOWLING GREEN, VA., April 23.—Warner Dennis and Taylor Grayson, colored, were arrested to-day, charged with the burning of a barn belonging to Mr. C. J. Mothershead, a merchant at Return. The barn, which contained a large quantity of corn and other things, was burned last Christmas Eve, and a colored detective was employed on the case, who got into the corn on the night of the burning, who told enough to incriminate them. They were up before Justice T. D. Coghill, who continued the case until next Monday.

Revival at Crewe.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CREWE, VA., April 23.—Rev. J. Hez. Swann, of the Second Baptist Church, Washington, D. C., is conducting several services at the Baptist Church here. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Kinshere, and Mr. C. H. Herring were the Sunday evening service.

Mrs. Joseph Anderson, of Buckingham county, is a guest at Hancock Hotel.

CONNELLY TRIGG DIES AT ABINGDON

Former Congressman and Prominent Southwest Attorney Succumbs to Pneumonia.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ABINGDON, VA., April 23.—Connolly Trigg died here this afternoon at half-past 3 o'clock of pneumonia. He was born at Abingdon, Va., on the 18th day of September, 1847. At the age of sixteen he entered the Confederate Army, in Company D, First Virginia Cavalry. Shortly after joining the army he received an appointment in the Confederate Navy, where he served till the close of the war. On the retreat from Richmond he was attached to the command under Admiral Semmes, who had charge of what was left of the Confederate treasury, and surrendered and was paroled in Georgia.

After the war he studied law in the office of his uncle, Judge John A. Campbell. In 1872 he was elected Commonwealth's attorney for Washington county, which office he held till 1884, when he resigned to make the most of his time in Washington city as the attorney for several large corporations. He was beyond doubt one of the brainiest and ablest lawyers in the State, and had been engaged in many of the most noted cases in Southwest Virginia. His wife and two brothers, T. P. and Daniel Trigg, survive him.

RESULTS TELL

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Richmond.

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a Richmond citizen can be easily investigated. What better proof can be had?

G. P. Thornton, of 709 East Leigh Street, Richmond, Va., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, in my opinion, are an excellent remedy. When sorely annoyed with backache or other symptoms of weakened or overexcited kidneys I went to Owens & Minor's drug store for a box, and although I did not use it strictly according to directions, it certainly brought results which very agreeably surprised me. I have not the slightest hesitation in very emphatically endorsing this preparation."

How Much Do You Spend Every Year For Cigars?

You buy a lot of cigars in a year's time, don't you? How many of them are good and how many are bad?

If it's too much trouble to figure that out, at least you can estimate how much you'd save and how much more enjoyment you'd get if you could be sure beforehand that every cigar you buy would be a good one.

We have solved your problem by stamping the "Triangle A" on the boxes of the best cigars made.

We know that by making this "Triangle A" mean "good cigars" to you (and we have to prove it with the cigars alone) we get your continued patronage.

Isn't it plain enough that we MUST produce cigars that prove our claims?

The American Cigar Company cannot jeopardize its interests by misrepresenting qualities and leading the public to expect better quality than is actually in the cigars themselves. The "Triangle A" really means better cigars for you—and you'll find the proof worth seeking.

For convincing proof of the better quality for which the "Triangle A" stands try
